

EDUCATION

MIT SLOAN SCHOOL OF MANAGEMENT

Cambridge, MA
2007-Present

Candidate for MBA, June 2009. Entrepreneurship and Innovation Program

- MediaTech Club Web2.0 Presenter
- New product planning and revenue capture externship at Care.com, a venture-funded startup.
- GPA 5.0/5, GMAT 770 (99th percentile)

UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS AT URBANA-CHAMPAIGN

Urbana-Champaign, IL
1998-2002

Bachelor of Science Electrical Engineering. GPA 3.51 (75th percentile)

- Recipient of 9 awards including the Knight of St Patrick - the highest award for engineering leadership
- Co-founded ongoing non-profit consulting company. Supervised 9 student project managers who managed 150 consultants over 3 semesters. Generated client donations of $2,000 - $10,000 per project
- Research Assistant for design and commercialization of skyscraper emergency escape system

EXPERIENCE

DELOITTE CONSULTING, LLP

Chicago, IL

Awarded highest performance rating (top 15%) on 11 out of 14 project evaluations

Senior Consultant, early promotion

Aug 2006-Aug 2007

- Developed winning proposals to sell $600,000 of new client projects
- Led competitive analysis of the healthcare software market, and presented recommendations to hospital CIO for $40M vendor selection. Chosen product improved productivity and patient safety while modernizing IT architecture

Consultant

Jul 2005-Aug 2006

- One of two Integration Project Managers on $7M enterprise software implementation at Kaiser Permanente
 - Improved medical imaging experiences for patients in 500,000 member HMO
 - Managed 4 Kaiser software engineers and coordinated work of over 20 cross-functional resources to define requirements, design functional specifications, and code 15 health data interfaces and conversions
 - Led SWAT team following massive data loss to rebuild 2.5 months of lost work in 3 weeks
 - Deployed product to streamline workflow for 200 users at 26 medical facilities
- Maintained software quality with 20% less testing by developing a risk-based testing strategy for the replacement of Capital One's core business software

Systems Analyst, Technology Integration

Jul 2002-Aug 2004

- Saved a projected $50M in reduced write-downs and aged receivables for the Deloitte Partnership by developing an ASP.NET Decision Support System
- Reduced overtime usage by 12% in 450 bed hospital by analyzing productivity
- Initiated Deloitte Chicago office relationship with Junior Achievement, resulting in 120 volunteers across two years

COLEGIO INTERAMERICANO

Guatemala City, Guatemala

Business Director of Technology

Sep 2004-Jul 2005 (leave of absence)

- Led IT department of 4 that managed all technology for 180 staff and 1400 students using 220 computers
- Crafted strategic five-year plan and implemented 10 major initiatives in 10 months
- Reduced IT spend 30% by renegotiating supplier partnerships and reengineering IT processes
- Enabled new teacher/parent/learner communication by deploying Course Management System

INDEPENDENT PROJECTS

FOUNDER, KATRINASHELTER.COM

Aug-Oct 2005

- Recruited and led a 26-person team to create KatrinaShelter.com, a web product that allowed people to volunteer housing for Katrina victims. Project generated, organized, and mapped 1300 shelter offers
- Presented to Red Cross and FEMA at National Conference for Volunteerism and Service, June 2006. "Open Source Disaster Management in Katrina"

CO-FOUNDER, POLLEVERYWHERE.COM

Jul 2007-Present

- Developed an extremely low-cost Audience Response System allowing presenters to use interactive slides that audiences interact with using SMS text messaging (e.g. voting as seen on TV shows)

OTHER ACTIVITIES

- Private pilot, nightclub DJ, chess, nonprofit web development, squash, desperately devoted skier
- Keynote Speaker at University of Illinois ECE graduation and the National Conference on Volunteerism and Service
- Technical skills: Full SDLC, HL7, SOA, LAMP platform, Agile/Scrum, XML, SQL Server, ASP.NET, C++, Java